Top IP Litigator and Trademark Specialist Joins Cantor Colburn

Atlanta, Ga.—Cantor Colburn LLP announced today leading intellectual property litigator Elizabeth Ann “Betty” Morgan has joined the firm as a partner. Ms. Morgan will continue her national practice in intellectual property litigation from the firm’s Atlanta office. She joins the firm from Epstein Becker & Green, P.C., where she was a member.

“Betty is a recognized leader in IP and trademark litigation who will advance and expand our litigation practice,” said Michael A. Cantor, Co-Managing Partner. “We are thrilled to welcome her to the firm and we are excited about the future of the litigation group.”

“Betty has extensive experience in IP litigation, not to mention trademark issues, that will bring additional depth to the firm’s practice,” added Philmore H. Colburn II, Co-Managing Partner.

Ms. Morgan is board certified in Intellectual Property Law. Ms. Morgan concentrates her trial practice on the enforcement and defense of trademark rights, trade secrets, copyrights, covenants-not-to-compete and patents. She also advises clients about their respective IP rights in situations involving traditional, as well as e-commerce. She counsels clients with branding issues, including trademark selection, as well as protection and licensing of other forms of intellectual property. She is a qualified expert witness on trademark issues. A former journalist, Ms. Morgan also advises media companies and litigates media law cases.

Ms. Morgan teaches Trial Techniques at Emory University School of Law, has spoken to the Conference of Florida Circuit Court Judges on non-competition issues, has taught trademarks and trade secrets as adjunct faculty at the University of Miami School of Law and has lectured extensively on intellectual property issues.

Ms. Morgan was board certified by the Florida Bar as a specialist in business litigation from 1997 to 2007; the board certification in intellectual property law is from 2008-2013. She is admitted to all federal district courts in Florida and in Georgia, to the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals and to the United States Supreme Court. She has practiced in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office and at the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board in Washington, DC. Ms. Morgan has significant bench and jury trial experience, has participated in numerous mediations and is well versed in other forms of alternative dispute resolution.

Ms. Morgan’s clients range from Fortune 500 companies to start-up companies and individuals accused of infringement. She has done trademark work for major league sports teams and First Amendment work for internationally-known entertainment companies.

Ms. Morgan received her JD from Emory University School of Law and a BA from the University of Florida.
